About Street Sleepers' Shelter Society

The Street Sleepers' Shelter Society (SSSS) was founded in 1933 by renowned philanthropists, including Late Sir Shiu-kin Tang and Sir Thun-nin Chow. The registered Hong Kong charity provides more than 200 places for the homeless and needy at their shelters in Wan Chai, Yau Ma Tei and Sham Shui Po. Originally aimed at caring for the homeless, particularly women and children after the War, SSSS provides free, year-round temporary shelters for the poor. Facilities include beds, shared toilets, showers with heated water, fans, phones, televisions and lockers. The SSSS is committed to serving vulnerable members of the society, assisting with charity work for the Hong Kong Government and encouraging its members to eventually become financially independent.
